

Virtual Survey Says

Are your teams up for the challenge of playing this fun online version of America's game? Modeled after the classic TV show, Survey Says is one of the most popular interactive team-building activities, utilizing real game show visuals and sound effects.

Following a "Feud" format, our lively host poses hilarious, survey-style questions to entertain your group during a casual work break or as part of a team-building session to encourage employee engagement and networking.

The Team Experience:

- Event begins with the facilitator's introductions and format and rules discussion
- The group is divided into teams
- For large groups, participants are randomly assigned to breakout rooms to discuss the top answers to popular Family Feud questions and return to the main call for answer reveal and scoring
- After multiple breakout room rounds, the top four teams play quick one-question rounds to determine an overall winner
- The winning team is celebrated and awarded bragging rights

Virtual programs are delivered via Zoom. If you prefer a different platform, we are happy to accommodate, if at all possible.

A creative charitable donation can be added to all of our virtual programs – ask us how!
