

Jeopardized!

Bringing all of the high-spirited fun of a live TV game show to your event location, this Jeopardy-style program delivers challenges in the form of trivia questions as well as audio and video clips by an engaging host.

Full-size podiums, complete with scoring, authentic sounds and microphones are used as well as multiple buzzers, ensuring everyone on the team is fully engaged during this day or evening entertainment event.

The Team Experience:

- Action begins with the facilitator's short and powerful energizer
- The group is divided into teams
- Questions cater to domestic or international groups, with topics such as World History, Sports, Entertainment, Pop Culture, etc.
- For large groups, an audience response keypad system engages all teams as they compete between each round to join the competition on stage
- A bracketed system of play progressively leads teams to the final round
- The winning team is awarded gold medals

This program can also be delivered for training purposes, enhancing employee retention with the use of questions based on your company's products, history, philosophy, management, and other important aspects of your business.
