

Trivia Pursuit

Loosely based on the classic board game, test your group's knowledge with Trivia Pursuit. This event is completely customizable, adapted for a diverse audience with reimagined themes including holiday trivia, music trivia, trivia by the decade, sports trivia and movie trivia. We also offer an "Are You Smarter Than a Fifth Grader" version and much more!

Pick your theme and our "Game Engineers" will develop a made-to-order tournament based on your group size and specific trivia categories. Then on "Game Day" teams will battle to earn their colored wedges while the laughter and friendly competition ensues!

The Team Experience:

- Program begins with a rundown on how the game will be played and scored
- Your team is split into groups and will create a team name
- Our "Wheel of Names" chooses the team whose turn it is to answer a color-coded question (all teams answer if the wheel lands on "All Play")
- Correct answers earn teams colored wedges, which are collected in order to win
- After multiple rounds the team with the most wedges wins, earning champion bragging rights
